REETH SHOW LTD

HEALTH AND SAFETY STATEMENT

1. Reeth Show Ltd will ensure as far as is reasonably practicable the safety and absence of risks to health at work of all the Society's employees.
2. The Society also undertakes its activities in such a way as to ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, that persons (not in the Society's employment) namely, officials, stewards, exhibitors, traders and members of the public are not thereby exposed to risks to their safety or health.
3. The Society will bring to the notice of contractors exhibitors and caterers and other participants in events organised by the Society, their duties under the relevant health and safety legislation in respect of the safety and health of their own employees and members of the public who may be affected by their activities.
4. During the Reeth Show each steward has a responsibility whilst on duty to take such measures as is deemed reasonable to take, to ensure the safety of all persons on the showground. Specialist stewards i.e., Horse, Cattle, Sheep, etc have special additional responsibilities within their own sections to apply their specialist knowledge to minimise risks to safety. All stewards have the authority to intervene or stop any event, movement of stock or vehicles, demonstration or display which they consider unsafe.

Good safety is basically straightforward. It requires awareness, commonsense and application. If you see something which is unsafe or somebody doing something which could lead to an accident then TAKE ACTION.

The Society disclaims all responsibility for loss or damage sustained by accident or otherwise to cars and their contents within the confines of the Car Parks and Showfield.

GENERAL RULES

1. That the Company be called "Reeth Show Ltd". The object of this Company shall be the improvement of Agriculture generally.
2. That this Company shall consist of a President, Vice-Presidents, Committee, Treasurer, Secretary and Members. The President, Vice-Presidents, Committee, Treasurer and Secretary to be elected annually at the General Meeting.
3. The Committee shall consist of not less than 15 members, who shall have the entire management of the Society, subject to the existing Rules.
4. The President and Vice-Presidents shall be ex-officio members of the Committee.
5. Annual Subscriptions shall become due and payable on the first day of August in each year. Subscriptions remaining unpaid on the first day of September shall be considered in arrears.
6. The Committee shall compile the Annual Prize List, and are empowered to make Rules and Bye-Laws necessary for the Annual Show.
7. The financial year shall be from 1st January to 31st December.

GENERAL SHOW YARD REGULATIONS

1. Live Stock entered in Classes where prizes are offered will only be admitted to the Show Ground on production and surrender of any current Ministry of Agriculture Regulations.
2. All animals and everything exhibited in competition for the prizes offered must be bona-fide property of the Exhibitor for Three Calendar Months prior to the day of the Show. All animals shown in the Open Classes must be the bona-fide property of the Exhibitor.
3. When any condition is attached to the winning of any premium, the prize will not be paid until such condition has been fulfilled, and Certificates produced to the Secretary. If an exhibitor acts in any manner with intention to defraud the Society by securing unfairly any prize offered, the Committee may debar such person from competing again for three years.
4. Any Exhibitor bringing an animal into the Show Yard affected with any contagious disease shall, on proof thereof, forfeit £10 to the Secretary for the use of the Society, and any Exhibitor removing stock before the close of the Show without the consent of the Secretary, or giving a false or incorrect Certificate, shall forfeit every unpaid prize and entrance money, and be debarred from showing at the Society's Shows for three years.
5. The Show Yard Stewards must withdraw from the ring when any of their stock is before the Judges.
6. If not more than two entries the award of First Prize will be left to the Judges' discretion.
7. Should any prize be forfeited through a protest against the exhibit to which it was awarded, such prizes will, in all cases, be paid to the next in merit duly qualified, if distinguished by the Judges.
8. All objections must be made by way of a written objection on the Show Day to the Secretary, and a deposit of £25 paid. Should the objection be ruled by the Committee to be frivolous, the £25 shall be forfeited to the funds of the Show, but if sustained it shall be returned to the objector.
9. The exhibits will only be admitted between the hours of 8.30 a.m. and 10.00 a.m. and no animal will be allowed to leave the ground before 4 p.m. except by permission of the Secretary.
10. The minimum subscription for Members shall be £5 which entitles them to one free admission ticket to the Show.

11. All animals brought into the Show Ground for exhibition must have the Judges' number attached before they can be exhibited. These numbers will be given out at the Secretary's tent on the morning of the Show, and corresponding numbers will be attached to each stall or pen of animals, and on no account will any person be allowed to remove any animals from the stalls or pens assigned to them, except when taken before the Judges.
12. Bulls exceeding one year old must be secured by a ring in the nose, or they will not be admitted to the Show Yard. All Cattle, both before and after being judged, must be taken to their respective stalls, and kept there until the close of the Show, or a fine of 50p will be imposed in every case where an animal is found out of its proper place without direct leave from the Field Stewards.
13. The Company will appoint a Veterinary surgeon, one of whose duties will be to see that the conditions attached to the exhibits in each class have been complied with, and that he shall have the power to disqualify any animal not complying with such conditions. Such disqualification shall be final, unless any exhibitor feeling aggrieved shall bring the case before a Committee under Rule 8.
14. All matters upon which a question of dispute shall arise not provided for in the Rules of the Company, or in the conditions attached to any prize, shall be referred to the Committee whose decision shall be final and binding upon all parties interested, and not subject to any Court of Law.
15. Should any dispute arise with any exhibit, such exhibit will be totally in the hands of the Stewards of the Ring, and any horses which go up to the Stewards of the Ring to be measured must be given up to the Horse Measurers.
16. The Society will not be responsible for any damage or theft that may occur through or to any animal or exhibit at the Show, and it shall be considered a condition of entry that the exhibitors shall hold the Society harmless and they shall be considered to indemnify the Society from any legal proceeding arising from any accident or theft.
17. The Entrance Fees for all classes shall be 10p in the pound on the standard First Prize offered in each class by the Society.
18. All Stock shown in the District Classes must have been depastured in the district, which comprises the whole of Reeth Union and the adjoining parishes of New Forest, Marske, Downholme, Walburn and Stainton, Scargill, Barningham, Newsham, Dalton, Gayles, Kirby Hill, Whashton, Ravensworth, Skeeby, Gilling, Hudswell, Brompton, Richmond, Tunstall, Hunton, and the north side of the river from Middleham Bridge to Askrigg, for 3 months prior to the Show.]
19. All Ribbons or Cards awarded must be worn during the Show, or the Prize Money will be withheld. This Rule will be strictly enforced.
20. The Committee reserve to themselves the right to remove any objectionable or noisy exhibitor, stallholder or hawker, and of altering any judging arrangements they may deem necessary.
21. No person will be allowed to show any animal in more than one class, except in Open and Special Classes, unless otherwise stated.
22. Admission to the Show Field and all attractions: £5 each; Children under 14 years of age £1. (including tax).
23. No covers allowed over Sheep Pens.

CLOWNS by MARGARET MAHY

See how they tippie-topple-tumbling come,
Dazing the country, dazzling the towns,
Here's the procession of the circus clowns.

² Hop on the heel and twist on the toe,
See how they wibble-wobble-waddling go.
Bim-bam-balloons in the clear blue air!
Clowns on the march to they-don't know-where.

³ Painted-on-smiles that are long and loud
Beam at the giggle-goggling crowd,
Under the paint do they grin so gay?
Nobody sees so I just can't say.

⁴ Look how the clowns all a-cantering come
Riding their donkeys with a hee-haw-hum.
Where have they come from? Where do they go?
They kin-can't say for they din-don't know.

HANDWRITING

Judge: MRS. P. ALLISON

342. HANDWRITING. For Children under six.

I think mice
Are rather nice.

343. HANDWRITING. For Children aged six or seven

From UPSIDE DOWN by AILEEN FISHER

It's funny how beetles and creatures like that can walk upside down
as well as walk flat:

344. HANDWRITING. For Children aged eight or nine

CATS by ELAENOR FARJEON

Cats sleep
Anywhere,
Any table,
Any chair,
Top of piano,
window-ledge,
In the middle,
On the edge,
Open drawer,
Empty shoe,
Anybody's
Lap will do,
Fitted in a
Cardboard box,
In the cupboard
With your frocks -
Anywhere!
They don't care!
Cats sleep
Anywhere.

345. HANDWRITING. For Children aged ten or eleven

BLUE-BUTTERFLY DAY by ROBERT FROST

It is blue-butterfly day here in spring,
And with these sky-flakes down in flurry on flurry
There is more unmixed colour on the wing
Than flowers will show for days unless they hurry.

But these are flowers that fly and all but sing:
And now from having ridden out desire
They lie closed over in the wind and cling
Where wheels have freshly sliced the April mire.

From THE OWL AND THE PUSSY-CAT by Edward Lear

The Owl and the Pussy-cat went to sea
In a beautiful pea green boat,
They took some honey, and plenty of money,
Wrapped up in a five pound note.
The Owl looked up to the stars above,
And sang to a small guitar,
'O lovely Pussy! O Pussy my love,
What a beautiful Pussy you are,
You are,
You are!
What a beautiful Pussy you are!'

PAINTING AND HANDICRAFTS OPEN CLASSES

Please limit each child to one entry per class.

Exhibits in the Painting and Collage classes MUST NOT exceed 20" x 16"
